TRYING TO SAVE THE INDIANS.

Vigorous Health Campaign Undertaken by the Government Bureau.

Washington, March 14.—The bureau of Indian affairs is prosecuting a health campaign among the Indians with all the vigor possible, in order to save the race from extinction. Dr. Joseph A. Murphy, medical supervisor of the Indian service, has left Washington to investigate the conditions on a number of reservations, and in several Indian schools in the West and Southwest, with particular reference to tuberculosis and trachoma. These two diseases are scourges among the Indians. Directly from their life in the open in the tempo of their primitive days, the Indians have advanced to the indoor existence of civilization, regardless, in a large measure of the necessary requisite of ventilation and sanitation. The mortality among the Indians is equivalent to twice that among the white race, and tuberculosis forms fifty per cent. of their deaths, according to the statistics which have been so far collected by the Indian bureau. Trachoma is prevalent among the Indians in the Southwest.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be toward the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, by writing to the following: Dr. J. C. Smith, 100 North Main Street, Barre, Vt. The pamphlet includes many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. J. C. Smith & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. J. C. Smith's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

REPUBLICANS IN DANGER

The New York Situation is Crucial

MACHINE TACTICS MAY

Mean Loss of 1912 Campaign—Therefore, the Administration Is Anxious—Will Do All in Its Power to Support the Hughes Reform.

New York, March 15.—With the departure of Senator Elihu Root yesterday for Washington to inform President Taft of the result of his conference with Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the Republican state committee, and the local leaders on the question of Woodruff's retirement from the chairmanship, looms a political situation which, in its larger meaning, bears directly not only on the coming state campaign next fall, but on the national campaign of 1912.

The administration, through Senator Root, has made it clear to those-fellow in the party's leadership in this state that New York must not be lost by the Republicans in the gubernatorial campaign, for such defeat would endanger the party's success two years later. To this end Senator Root informed Mr. Woodruff that the opposition to Governor Hughes and his measures must cease, and the delicate suggestion was made to have been made that the federal power would be used to thwart such opposition if it continued.

Whether Senator Root sought to force Mr. Woodruff from the state chairmanship as an initial step to remove from the party control the so-called "machine" leaders was the subject of much conjecture at state headquarters yesterday. "I am still here," said Chairman Woodruff yesterday, and then made it evident that he would at least continue as chairman until the end of his term.

"There's much more than the chairmanship of the state committee involved in this matter," said an up-state leader yesterday. "President Taft and his friends are setting the stage for the national campaign of 1912, and the administration feels that unless the present state organization joins with Governor Hughes a party split will follow that will give the state to the Democrats next November and seriously jeopardize the Republicans' chance of capturing New York's thirty-nine electoral votes for their presidential nominee. Woodruff will remain chairman and the opposition to Governor Hughes will in a large measure cease, so that no split may occur, if the Root plan is carried out, but the election of Senator Cobb as president pro tem of the state Senate has so strengthened the hands of Woodruff and his friends in the organization that they may elect to advance such legislation as they please at Albany, and in so doing will split the party wide open. In that event, our hope lies in Theodore Roosevelt, who will be asked to assume the leadership of the party, and his return is only three months away."

The Woodruff adherents assert that the efforts of the administration in the present situation, contemplate an invasion of the right of state political control. Senator Root is said to have insisted that if Senator Aldis is guilty he must go, and Chairman Woodruff made it plain that the organization would let matters take their own course.

Chairman Woodruff indicated yesterday that the Aldis case would be judged solely on its merits. A close adviser of Mr. Woodruff said at headquarters yesterday afternoon: "The situation is thoroughly understood by Senator Root and the chairman. You may call it a compromise or what you will, but Chairman Woodruff will continue as head of the state committee and the organization will cease its opposition to the Hughes measures, so they will pass the legislature, though in modified forms. The telephone and telegraph will be placed under the public service commission, but probably under the up-state department of the commission. The Hiram-Green bill for direct nominations won't go through, but the bill drawn by the special committee, which is a modification of the Hiram-Green measure, will be accepted. Chairman Woodruff tells me that the stories told by certain congressmen in Washington that Senator Aldis is to be whitewashed have no basis in fact and that the case will be fairly passed on."

BUTTER MEN NOT A TRUST

Workings of the Elgin Board Explained

TO SENATE COMMITTEE

How the Week's Prices Are Fixed—The Dairymen's Combination Works Much Like Stock Exchange.

Washington, March 15.—Capt. James F. Oyster, a Washington dealer in butter and eggs, yesterday told the Senate committee that is investigating the high cost of living all about the Elgin board, which fixes the price of butter for the country every week, and gave it as his opinion that the board is not a trust in any sense.

"What we call Elgin butter is not known to the trade as trust butter, and the Elgin board is not a trust," said Capt. Oyster. In reply to the direct questioning of Senator Simmons, Capt. Oyster testified, however, that it is due to the Elgin board that uniformity of price is maintained in the butter market, and that if there were no board the prices would be fixed in every community by local conditions.

The board, according to the witness, is an exchange composed of some three hundred of the creamery men and merchants in Illinois and parts of Wisconsin and Iowa. Every Monday the members gather on the floor of this exchange, and butter is offered for sale or bid for just as stocks are offered or bid for on the floor of the New York stock exchange. After the bids and offers have been received, an advisory committee of the board passes on them and fixes up a price, usually the average of the quotations on exchange, which is known as the Elgin board price for the remainder of that week.

Capt. Oyster explained that he gets his butter supply from creameries, with which he has contracts to take their entire output at the Elgin board price each week, except in one or two cases, in which he pays a premium over the Elgin price. He said there was no trade agreement to fix the price to the trade or to the consumer. On his wholesale business his margin was 1 cent per pound. On his retail business, his gross profit was from 12 1/2 to 15 per cent., and his net one-half of that.

Elgin prices from 1880 to 1910 were quoted by Capt. Oyster, showing that the lowest average price for any year was 17.3 cents in 1896, and the highest 23.23 cents in 1901. In December last, the price went to 36 cents for one week, but there was a sharp reaction, and the average price for last year was 29 cents. The present quotation is 31 cents. In the last six years there has been an increase of 8 to 7 cents. The sudden drop from the high price in December was due, said Capt. Oyster, to the appearance of storage butter in large quantities, a thing that always happened whenever the price of fresh creamery butter was pushed too high.

Preceding Capt. Oyster on the stand, William N. Poulton, a grocer and butcher of Baltimore, who caters largely to the laboring class of trade, gave the range of prices in his business for the last six years, and testified that there had been an increase of 8 to 10 per cent. He said he had made no money for two or three years, and declared that fully one-half the dealers in Baltimore were practically broke. Mr. Poulton fixed the monthly provision bill for a family of five at from $28 to $40.

Independent meat packers from New York and Cincinnati have been announced to appear before the committee on Thursday.

DENY STEAMSHIP REBATES.

Railroad Men Plead Not Guilty in Federal Government's Action.

New York, March 15.—Plea of not guilty were entered before Judge Holt in the United States district court yesterday by F. C. Friser, William C. Maxwell and David O. Ives, who were indicted on Nov. 22, last, charged with violation of the Elkins relate law. The case was continued for two weeks, the defendants being held under $5000 bail each. Mr. Friser and Mr. Maxwell were indicted jointly, charged with having granted rebates to the Holland-America Steamship company. Maxwell is general traffic manager of the Washash railroad, and Friser is foreign agent of the Washash. Ives, who is president of the Boston Merchants association's board of transportation, and formerly was general traffic manager of the Washash, was indicted jointly with William E. Schmidt, formerly foreign freight agent of the Washash, and now eastern representative of the Missouri Pacific & Iron Mountain system at San Francisco. Mr. Schmidt was not represented in court yesterday. J. I. Minis appeared as counsel for the three defendants, one of whom was in court.

Although these men were indicted several months ago, the fact was not made known until yesterday, even the railroad men themselves having been ignorant of the fact until a few days ago, when they were notified to appear in court for pleading. Adrian Glips, general manager of the Holland-America company, has already entered a plea of not guilty, and is out on $10,000 bail. His trial is set for next Monday. Robert Barnard, formerly general freight agent of the Central Vermont railroad, also was indicted at the time the other indictments were returned. Mr. Barnard requested a delay of a few days, and his case was not called yesterday.

ENDED LIFE BY HANGING.

August Erickson, Farm Hand, Despondent, Committed Suicide.

Concord, N. H., March 15.—August Erickson, a farm hand in the employ of Samuel G. Potter, in East Concord, committed suicide yesterday morning, by hanging.

Erickson has been employed by Mr. Potter for 17 years. He had no family and his nearest relatives resided in Proctor, Vt. He went to them on a visit in December and returned to the farm two weeks ago.

Yesterday morning, at about 8:00 o'clock, Erickson went to the cattle barn, located about 300 yards from the house, to feed the stock; and as he did not return, Arthur Powell went in search and found his body hanging from the rafters.

The police department was immediately notified and Deputy Marshal Rowe and Officer Batchelder went over and investigated the case. On their report to Dr. Granville P. Conn, medical referee, it was deemed unnecessary to order an inquest, and suicide by hanging was given as the cause of death.

The causes which led Erickson to take his life are not known, but despondency is supposed to have induced the act.

FRENCH EXPOSURE COMING

Duez Has List of Many Men Involved

WERE PAID HUSH MONEY

"American Invasion" Scored by the Deputy—He Wants Europe to Unite Against This Country.

Paris, March 15.—A cipher list of persons whom M. Duez, the embittered liquidator of the properties of the religious orders, declares received hush money from him promises to play in the present scandal a part similar to that of the famous check-book of M. Thierret, which served to compromise so many French politicians in the Panama canal affair. None of the names from this code has yet been published. The Journal claims to possess proof that all of Duez's operations were tainted with fraud and collusion. The paper says that establishments worth $400,000 were sold for $30,000, while some were leased for a period of thirty years under private understandings, by which Duez was to receive large annual rake-offs.

The Duez interpellation was resumed in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, and M. Millerand, minister of public works, posts and telegraphs, took the tribune to defend himself against certain insinuations. He characterized as false the rumors that he had received $180,000 in fees from Duez and that he had accepted $2,000 hush money. He explained that he had pleaded a case for Duez in 1907, but only because the suit involved complicated questions relating to the law itself. For this service, he received a fee of $2,000. The minister declared that his political life was an open book, which contained nothing of which he was not proud.

The re-entering of all accounts and proceedings in connection with the liquidation of the property of the religious orders, and the possibility of the recovery of considerable sums which have disappeared through excessive fees and charges and "collusion sales" is now the hope of the government, whose law officers believe they can appeal from the judgments confirming the liquidations, under a recent decision of the court of cassation. It may even be possible to set aside some of these "collusion sales," notably those in connection with Stanislas college and the Chartreuse contracts. The government papers intimate that there are several cases of apparent collusion between the liquidators and persons acting for the orders liquidated. Evidence to this effect, it is reported, has been discovered.

As an additional public assurance, the government is also considering the advisability of replacing M. Lemarquis, who took over Duez's work, with a former governor of the bank of France. Many stories are published of the riotous living indulged in by Martin Gauthier, who is now under arrest as an accomplice, since he became associated with Duez. Prior to this he earned only $40 a month. After he entered the employ of Duez, he attired himself in the height of fashion, sported automobiles and indulged in many other luxuries, and had just purchased a chateau when he was arrested. It is reported that the code to the names of those who were subsidized by Duez, and who used certain symbols in receipting for money given to them by Duez, has been discovered, and disclosures are imminent.
